Assessing sexual dysfunction in people living on dialysis in a New Zealand renal service
Fredric Doss & Nick Polaschek ................................................................. 104

Consent and end-stage kidney disease: improving the consent processes in dialysis
Dianne C. Pierce & Allyson Manley ............................................................ 110

Peritoneal dialysis: one unit’s response to improving outcome and technique survival
Leanne M. Evans ....................................................................................... 114

Renal health care professionals’, patients’ and carers’ collaboration to improve education and research
Melissa Chamney, Trevor Cook, Ratna Das, Shahid Muhammed & Julia Jones .... 120

Health professionals’ perceptions of the JPAT – an assessment tool for home haemodialysis suitability
Josephine Chow & Duong Thuy Tran .......................................................... 126

Telehealth in nephrology health care: a review
Tony M. Blinkhorn .................................................................................... 132

Examining the health-related quality of life of people with end-stage kidney disease living in Hanoi, Vietnam
Khanh Ngo Van, Supaporn Duangpaeng, Aporn Deenan & Ann Bonner ............ 140

Buttonhole cannulation for haemodialysis: a nursing review
Leanne M. Evans ....................................................................................... 146

Managing chronic kidney disease in primary care: a quality improvement study
Nicola Thomas & Fiona Loud ................................................................. 152

Improved haemoglobin levels with reduced frequency of administration of epoetin alfa
Glen Allen, Ann Kruger, Rajiv Juneja, George Passaris & Jeffrey A. Barbara ...... 158